1. Confidential Information and Nondisclosure

a. - c. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to grant to either party any license or other interest, including any ownership right, in the other's Confidential Information or any intellectual property rights therein.
- d. The provisions of this Article 1 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason for a period of 5 years following such termination or expiration, and shall survive with respect to any Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret of a party until such information is no longer protected by trade secret status. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement or otherwise upon Meridian's request, Contractor shall return or destroy, as requested by Meridian, all Confidential Information of Meridian and all business records and other information in its possession or control that in any way relates to Meridian, and shall certify in writing its compliance with the foregoing requirements.

- b. Meridian may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part if Contractor (i) breaches any of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, or fails to make progress so as to endanger performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and (ii) in any of these circumstances, does not cure such breach or failure to Meridian's reasonable satisfaction within a period of 10 days after receipt of notice from Meridian of such breach or failure.
- c. Meridian may terminate this Agreement and/or Contractor's performance hereunder, effective immediately, if Meridian reasonably determines that Contractor has acted dishonestly, carelessly committed an act of misconduct, failed to provide contracted Services or deliverables, committed any unlawful act, or acted in any way that materially adversely affects Meridian's reputation.
- d. In the event that Contractor defaults under this Agreement and as a result Meridian terminates this Agreement with respect to certain Services or deliverables as permitted under Article 3 (b) above, Meridian may elect to procure the same or substantially the same Services or deliverables as those so terminated and Contractor shall be, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to Meridian, liable to Meridian for any excess costs for the procurement of such substantially similar work, Services, or deliverables, provided, however, that Contractor must continue the performance of this Agreement to the extent not terminated by Meridian. Meridian must use reasonable care to mitigate the amount of excess costs for which Contractor may be liable hereunder.

If, after termination, it is determined for any reason whatsoever that Contractor was not in default, or that the default was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties are the same as if the termination had been issued for the convenience of Meridian in accordance with Article 2 of this Agreement. The provisions of this Article 3 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason.
- f. The rights granted to Meridian hereunder are in addition to any rights that Meridian may have at law or in equity.

Scope and Processing of Personal Data

Contractor will comply with all applicable Data Protection Laws in the processing of Personal Data while providing the services defined in the Agreement. The Contractor will not process Personal Data other than on Meridian’s specific documented instructions.

Contractor may be processing special categories of data defined under GDPR (“Sensitive Data”), depending on the services outlined in the Agreement. Sensitive Data includes racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data, data concerning health, or data concerning an individual’s sexual orientation.

Data Subject Rights

Contractor will provide reasonable assistance to enable Meridian to respond to any request by Data Subjects exercising their rights under applicable Data Protection Law.
